Wayne E. Bailey sees best Thanksgiving sweet potato movement in 20 years

November 30, 2011

George Wooten, president of Wayne E. Bailey Produce Co. in Chadbourn, NC, shared his exhilaration Nov. 23 over the strong Thanksgiving business the company had done. He was looking forward to sitting down at his own family Thanksgiving dinner the following day.

“Our family has a treasure trove of great sweet potato recipes,” he said.

Mr. Wooten said that Thanksgiving for his family always includes extra thanks for the sweet potato harvest.

“We had an outstanding Thanksgiving season,” he said. “It’s been a long time since we’ve had as good a year.”

Sun Crest-Bollinger now is operating out of a consolidation warehouse in Nogales

November 30, 2011

For the past three years, the Nogales, AZ, branch office of Monterey, CA-based Sun Crest-Bollinger International Inc., here, was housed in an office with no warehouse facility, according to Vince Silva, who handles sales for the company's Nogales operation.

That has changed. The company has relocated its Nogales office to a facility in the Rio Rico Industrial Park that consists of warehouse space in addition to office space. "That is going to work for us a whole lot better," Mr. Silva said Nov. 8 to The Produce News.
