Ippolito International ready for IFPA Foodservice

July 22, 2026

IPPOLITO INTERNATIONAL

Ippolito International has been preparing for the 2026 IFPA Foodservice Conference.

“The IFPA Foodservice convention is a ‘destination show’ with our customers — and for good reason,” said Heather Fuller, vice president of business development. “It’s the right time for customers to be here in the Salinas Valley, as we are in full production. Showcasing our field and value-added operations is what we love to do this time of year!”

New tariffs on imports from Canada

July 22, 2026

Monday, July 20, President Trump signed three proclamations instituting 50 percent tariffs on a range of imports from Canada. Cut flowers and inputs into U.S. floral and produce production will be affected by the proposed tariffs.

Products currently covered by the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement are not exempt from the increased tariff rate. The 50 percent increase will go into effect Aug. 19.

In memory of David J. C. Austin: A floral breeder whose legacy will continue

July 22, 2026

The global floral community joins in mourning the passing of David J. C. Austin, chairman of David Austin Roses, who died at his home in Shropshire, England, surrounded by his family. Thoughts and condolences are with his family, loved ones and the David Austin Roses team.

Though an internationally respected business leader and rosarian, Austin was, first and foremost, a gardener. His love for roses guided a lifetime of work defined by humility, dedication and an unwavering commitment to beauty.
